

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS OF EAST ASIA WEBINARS

May-June 2021

May 10th, 3.30 pm

The economics of identity. Rising Japan and China in US economic discourse

NICOLA NYMALM | Swedish Defence University

May 24th, 3.30 pm

With great development comes great responsibility. Japan's (un)changing international role up to the Abe era

MARCO ZAPPA | Ca' Foscari University of Venice

May 31st, 3.30 pm

US-China competition and cooperation in outer space. An historical overview

TONIO SAVINA | Sapienza University of Rome

June 9th, 1.30 pm

Protecting China's turbulent frontiers. Securitization theory and Chinese foreign policy

ANDREA GHISELLI | Fudan University and ChinaMed Project

In cooperation with

CARC
CONTEMPORARY ASIA RESEARCH CENTRE

The webinars are organized by the International Relations of East Asia course of the Master's programme in International Relations (REL) and are open to the public. Please, register here.

WEBINARS

Microsoft Teams